SOCIETY

DANCE FRIDAY NIGHT.

The younger set enjoyed a dance Friday night at the home of Mrs. John A. Harris. About twenty were present. During an intermission Mr. John O'Farrell, a visitor, entertained the party with some excellent imitations of animals and foreign vernacular. Dancing ended about 1 o'clock.

MRS. SMITH ENTERTAINS.

Mrs. J. Allen Smith, Jr., invited the younger set of society folks to a party Friday afternoon at her home on North Main street, the occasion being a pretty compliment to her visitors, Miss Mary Holman, and Miss Mary Clark of Sumter.

Tables for playing rook were prepared on the lawn under the beautiful oak in front of the house but on account of the inclement weather the affair developed into a house party after all.

Many merry games were played by the young people after which a delightful salad course with sherbet was served.

Twenty-four young ladies were invited to meet the visitors and all enjoyed this lovely party.

ENTERTAINS FOR HER GUESTS.

Misses Margaret Orr of Asheville, Margaret Reid of Sandy Springs and Mildred Cochran of Abbeville are the guests this week of Miss Grace Lander. They have been the recipients, during their stay of a number of parties. Monday night Miss Lander entertained her guests with a party at Stone's lake. Tuesday night they were the honor guests at a very pretty dance at Miss Lander's home, when about 35 young people enjoyed a most pleasant evening. Wednesday night Miss Lander entertained about 30 friends in honor of her guests at a swimming party at Cox's lake. Picnic lunch was enjoyed after the swimming. After enjoying the Community club concert Thursday night a large party of young people gathered at the Lander home and enjoyed dancing and a watermelon feast.

Friday Miss Lander and her guests were honor guests at luncheon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lander of Anderson. Friday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. James P. Gossett entertained for these young women with a swimming party at the Country club of Anderson. In the evening together with Mr. and Mrs. Sam Lander of Anderson, Dr. and Mrs. Frank Lander of Williamston, Glenn Lassiter, Boyd McClean and Mr. Wood of Anderson and Clarence Lee Guyton and others of Williamston, Mr. and Mrs. Gossett entertained the party with dinner and a dance at the Country club.—Williamston News in the State.

ENTERTAINED IN NEW YORK

The State of Saturday carries the story of a pleasant entertainment tendered the South Carolina students of Columbia University summer school. This party was given at the home of Mrs. Pinckney Lee Estes Glantzburg who is well known to the people of the A. R. P. church, the Erskine student body and the people of the state generally. Mrs. Glantzburg is spending the summer in Maine but when she found that many of her Erskine friends were in the city she asked Miss Maud Bigham of Chester to assist her husband and a New York friend, in the opening of her house and entertaining the South Carolinians. The evening was a charming one and was attended by the following young ladies known to our people: Misses Virginia Reid, Lillie Bonner and James Bonner and P. L. Grier of Due West, Misses Malvina Kennedy and Billy Morrah of Troy, and Miss Frances Wideman of Greers.

Mr. Glantzburg was a charming host and gave as favors small Swedish toys, which were made in his sister's school of art in Sweden.

Mrs. Glantzburg passed the New York bar examinations in March of this year. She also received her doctor's degree from New York university this spring. She is one of the three women in the United States who have this new degree—doctor of juridical science.

MISS REID ENTERTAINS

Miss Mary Reid entertained twenty of her friends Friday evening in honor of her cousin, Miss Allee Baskin of Anderson.

Rook and other interesting games were the amusements of the evening, after which refreshments of tea and sandwiches were served.

ANOTHER TEACHER.

Miss Jane Hough of Chester, a graduate of Winthrop College, has accepted a position in the Abbeville City schools.

EXAMINATIONS

Special examinations for all pupils who are conditioned will be held in the graded school Friday and Saturday, August 25th and 26th.

PICNIC AT CENTRAL.

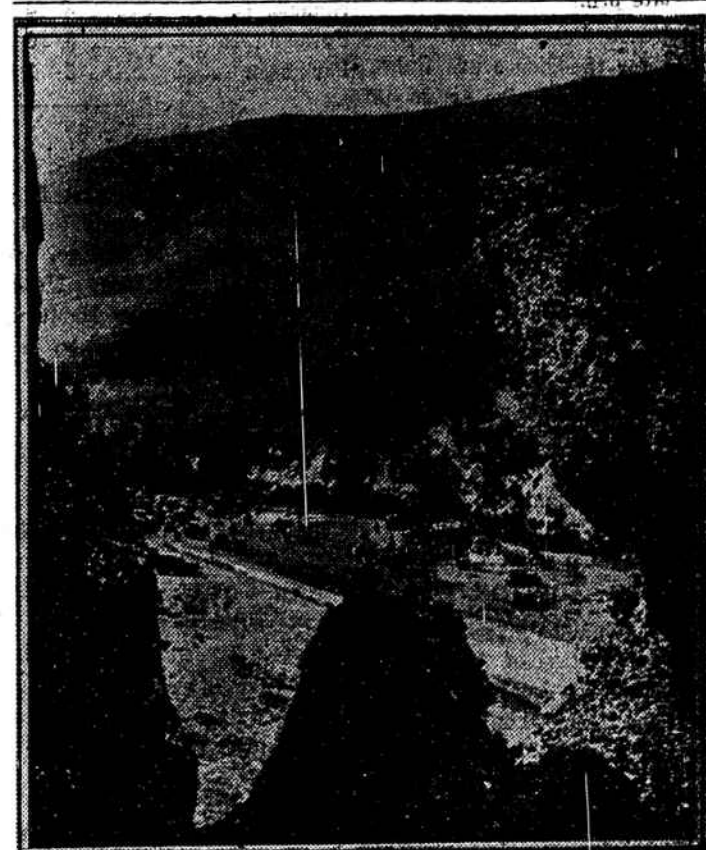

There will be a picnic and hash dinner at Central next Saturday, August the 19th. The public is invited to attend.

Mrs. Alma Gibbons says you can get all of the Hanson Lettuce seed you want from any of the local stores for 5 cents a package. This is the lettuce recommended for winter planting.

"SIZZLER" ONE OF THE LEADING SWAT SMITHS.

Baseball experts are of the opinion that George Sisler, crack first baseman of the St. Louis American League team is more valuable than ever this season. With his mighty budgeon hitting the ball at a lively clip he has boosted the morale of his team which is still clinging tenaciously to first place.

NEW TRAIL NEAR YELLOWSTONE DEDICATED.

Looking through one of the mountain rock formations onto the opening of a trail of romance—the Hoback Canyon highway through the very heart of the West of old time tradition, between Rock Springs and Kemmerer, Wyoming, and the south entrance of Yellowstone National Park through the Jackson's Hole region. The road was officially dedicated by Governor Robt. D. Carey of Wyoming recently.
